S. No.	Information sought	Reply
1	Indian Institute of Soil Science, Bhopal has developed the technology of mini soil testing lab called Mridaparikshak. I am writing to IISS Bhopal for getting the technology for marketing and manufacturing but not get the reply till date. I want information whether the technology is available for commercialization and if so then the procedure to avail the same.	The modalities of commercialization (after the first phase) of the said technology is under process.
